PTA and HSF Reports: (5 min)

- PTA Report:
  - o Open House was a success with a great turnout. The PTA will likely not try to hold a General meeting in combination with Open House in the future as it was hard to get folk's attention and be heard. Next General Meeting will likely be held during the first week of December.
  - o PTA has 38 members.
  - o The Book Fair will be held during the first week of Parent/Teacher Conferences: 10/31 - 11/4
  - o We have new merchandise and made $700 at the Hanalei Farmers' Market; new socks arrived today; new designs for hats and shirts. $2K sold at Open House. Will sell some during parent/teacher conferences. New inventory coming. 12/3 and 12/10 market booths could use some volunteers to help.
  - o The Fitness Challenge will take place over winter break.
  - o Give Big is in December which is run by Britt Cooper
  - o The PTA is working on securing after school club leaders to start on November 1. They would like art, drama, and sports. The clubs will be funded by PTA and Aloha Angels. Deena has a list of the people who ran clubs for Kilauea School and will share with PTA.
  - o Rachelle suggested to the PTA that doing a Craft Fair could be a good fundraiser during the holidays.
  - o There was discussion about holding a Holiday Parent event similar to past events.
